

THE XIAO TIME PHILIPPINE HISTORY INDEX

Dahil sa pangangailangan ng maraming guro na magkaroon ng mga materyal para sa kanilang online classes sa panahon ng Corona Virus, aking sinimulan ngayong umaga ang paglikha ng index ng mga Xiao Time videos na magkakasunod-sunod ayon sa pinag-aaralan sa kasaysayan ng Pilipinas o sa Rizal. Karamihan ng lahat ng 643 episodes na ginawa sa loob ng limang taon (2012-2017) ay narito, kabilang na ang Project Vinta at Project Saysay series na tumuloy hanggang 2018. Sa panonood nito, magkakaroon ka na ng gagap ng pagkakasunod-sunod ng kasaysayan ng Pilipinas. Mas madali na din lamang mahahanap ang mga paksa dahil nakaayos na ito sa bawat tema o maaaring i-search sa isang listahan na ito. Antagal ko nang pangarap na magawa ito, sa wakas nasimulan ko rin.

Sa paggunita ngayon ng mahalagang ika-499 guning taong pagdating ni Magellan sa Pilipinas, 16 Marso 2020, aking inilalabas ang pinakaunang index ng Xiao Time videos ukol sa Kasaysayang ng Pilipinas. Nirebisa 29 Marso 2020, 14 Abril 2020.

Pagpupugay sa Xiao Time ni John Ray Ramos ng Proyekto, 25 April 2017:

A FAREWELL TO XIAO TIME

Never has been a show on Philippine television that showcased Philippine History as Xiao Time.

Critics in the 'ivory tower of historiography' may discredit the 3-minute segment as too basic and 'mababaw', yet many have come to appreciate what it has to offer in a country that does not read and easily forgets its history.

The episodes uploaded on YouTube have been the go-to of students trying to pass their AP, history, and Rizal subjects but ends up learning more than what is required to them.

It has been the must-watch segment and most useful for Araling Panlipunan and history teachers trying to grasp an overview of various specific and in-depth topics in history ranging from the usually overlooked to the controversial.

And it has been the go-to for Filipinos taking time to rediscover our past and learn more of our identity as a nation.

Today we learn that there will be no more Xiao Time in PTV-4 after four and a half years and 639 episodes. We harbor no anger nor resentment to the management of PTV. But we mourn for the end of an influential historical public affairs segment in a time when our nation needs it the most.

Xiao Time's legacy perhaps would be that it is one of the greatest milestones to Philippine Public history so far. With scholarship and the use of the Filipino language, it has made Philippine history accessible to Filipinos. And represented the efforts of scholars and cultural workers and activists working together in making every Filipino aware of our identity.

Congratulations Prof. Xiao Chua for making it a success over the years. May you have more public historical projects on a wider scale.

Xiao Time is dead. Long live Xiao Time!
